

A Singles Cooking Enthusiasts 'Italian Valentine's Feast'
When: Saturday, February 11th, at 6pm until 11pm
Where: Southeast Denver (Location Given To Paid RSVPers)

"Join Cheryl and Susan For An Italian Valentine's Feast For Single Lovers
Of Cooking, Wine and Fun.

As a graduate of the Culinary Arts Program at The Art Institute of Houston, and the Cuisine Coordinator for The Austin Social Club, Cheryl has taught classes for Whole Foods, The University of Texas at Austin's Continuing Education Series, and has worked as a Pastry Chef, Caterer, and Events Planner. She enjoys sharing her knowledge and love of all things culinary with fellow food enthusiasts and has hosted over twenty cooking parties.

Working at The International Culinary School at The Art Institute of Colorado, Susan has learned a thing or two from the many talented chef instructors over the last six years and enjoys cooking and entertaining.

The theme for this first Cooking Party Event with UTC (with hopefully many more to come) is Italian- the food of AMORE and quite appropriate for the Valentine's time of year.

Cheryl has put together a menu which we will all prepare:
(Each Course Will Be Served With Its Pairing Wine Selection)

First Course:

Antipasto

Second Course:

Shrimp Scampi and Tomato/Olive Tmpenade on Brushetta

Third Course:

Lasagne And Ensalada

Dessert Course:

Italian Cream Cake and Coffee

Skills demonstrations, recipe hand-outs, and lots of fun are part of the event. The cost is $25, and all the money goes towards the food, alcohol, paper products, and movie.

We will be watching "THE BIG NIGHT"; a Food Lover's movie if ever there was one (think "Babette's Feast", "Like Water For Chocolate").

You bring a cutting board and knife, and a big appetite. There will be LOTS of food.

There is a limit of 16 people for this dining experience. To avoid turning away people who truly want to enjoy the evening or spending money for more food/libations than needed, only those who've prepaid by check and have had it received by the 8th will be confirmed. The address to mail your checks will be sent to Yes RSVP's. Upon receipt of your check we will send the address of the event, (Southeast Denver).
