

WOLF CREEK SKI TRIP
January 29, 30, 31 - 2010
 $200 UTC Members $220 Non-Members

“THE MOST SNOW IN COLORADO”

TRANSPORTATION: A luxury bus will provide our round trip service to the resort and back from Denver leaving promptly at 2pm on Friday Jan 29th. The bus will also transport us from our lodge to and from the ski area during the weekend. We will arrive back in Denver around 10:00pm on Sunday Jan 31. No need to worry about getting around an unfamiliar resort, you get drop off service!

LODGING: We will be staying at the Wolf Creek Ranch Ski Lodge. Take a virtual tour, view photos and find out about the wonderful amenities www.wolfcreekranchco.com What a great place and a very friendly staff, hot tub fun and a great big community room!

FOOD: A fabulous meal with adult & non-alcoholic beverages will be provided on the bus trip to and from Denver. On Friday night there will be a welcome party with heavy appetizers and on Saturday night a catered BBQ dinner, both include plenty of libations. You will need to provide your own breakfast & lunch and our lodge has fridge facilities. The food will be fantastic, promise!!

THE RESORT: Wolf Creek Ski Resort averages 465 inches of natural snow, the resort is famous for the most snow in Colorado. Its unique mountain terrain catches and preserves the deep powder of snow storms that blow into the southwestern Rockies. With a base elevation of 10,300 feet and summit at 11,904, the champagne powder and high mountain pass of Wolf Creek is a winter wonderland for skiers and boarders. Wolf Creek is a “Green Resort” 100% of its power is wind generated. Learn To Ski Or Snowboard or improve your skills! Wolf Creek is one of the least expensive places in Colorado for ski lessons. We will have group lift tickets available for purchase for skiers. Non-skiers will find over 6 miles of alpine terrain for cross country or snowshoe fun at no charge. Find out what Wolf Creek Resort offers you www.wolfcreekski.com and make sure you check out the resort photo page. Steep & Deep or Gentle & Serene!
